THE CORRUPTION OF ZACHARY R.

by Douglas Richardson

"In staccato chapters dealt out like a deck of cards—snappy, latent, repeating—Richardson tracks Zachary R.'s descent into psychosis... in writing that has the elemental quality and dreamy, out-of-body remoteness of black-and-white photography... [He] tenders characters that, due to the story's brevity and swiftness, are quickly sympathetic and pack a compressed punch.... An artful, beguiling voyage."
